“ Dear Rodney and the Gunn Family, May the depths of God's love continue to be the source of your comfort and strength as you journey along this challenging part of life's road, in experiencing the passing of your father and our brother, Fred Gunn. May you know the love of God even more deeply as we celebrate the gift of Fred's presence while he lived among us. Know that you are in my prayers. samuel nixon jr., Alexandria, VA

“ I used to periodically tease Fred by suggesting that he dig up his backyard and plant a garden, particularly when they lived in Fort Washington off Steed Rd. He would always fall out laughing, saying noooo no, suggesting how much Faye would not like that. Then when they moved to Fredericksburg I said, okay now Fred you can now dig up your yard and plant that garden. Again, he'd always give me the same response.

I also was a fellow trustee with Fred, he was Rev Peterson's favorite go-to whenever the church needed something built, like the stage in the multipurpose room, or the the JOP library needed to be built out. Fred also finished our basement when we lived across the street from them on Lancelot Rd in Fort Washington. Jim Garrett

“ TO THE GUNN FAMILY. God’s Amazing Grace will bring you comfort, peace and strength during this difficult time.

Fred was an awesome, beautiful person always upbeat, happy, and willing to help when needed.

I’m the early days of the D. C. Chapter of Norfolk State University Alumni, Fred served in many offices.

He was very active, supportive, and hard working ; giving our chapter and our University his all. Now he in Heaven with his beloved Faith doing the same.

Their memories will remain in our hearts!

Blessings

“ May the family find comfort and strength as they go through this difficult journey. The Lord is with your family. Fred was one of the nicest person I worked with at TC Williams.

With deepest sympathy as you remember Fred.
