

Mr. Lorenzo Mottina Smith, Jr.

November 22, 1947 - October 20, 2021

Lorenzo M. Smith, Jr.

Also known as Butch to some and Clutch to others

Lorenzo M. Smith, Jr. was born November 22, 1947 and slipped away quietly on October 20, 2021 at Georgetown Hospital. Lorenzo was the first born child of the late Lorenzo M. Smith, Sr. and Connie M. Smith.

Lorenzo went to DC Public schools and graduated from Chamberlain Vocational School. After graduating Lorenzo was drafted in the United States Army where he served and fought in the Vietnam War. After having an honorable discharge and returning to Washington, D.C. he worked for the Department of Treasury and eventually worked for the Parked services where he was detailed to work at the White House and eventually retired after 30 some years.

Lorenzo was also known for the love of his music and playing the drums. He played for the Royal Tones, The Unifics and the Original Peaches and Herb band.

He leaves to mourn his passing a wife and friend of 30 years, Francine Smith; One Daughter Michelle Maiden (husband Joe), One Son Lorenzo M. Smith, III (Melonie). Late brother Kenny Smith and his youngest brother Kevin E. Smith, Sr. He also leaves behind 5 granddaughter's Candace, Jaiden, Marcia, Lamoria and Lamore, 2 grandsons Lorenzo and Cornelius. 1 great granddaughter and 1 great grandson (deceased). Neice's and nephews Katrina, Kenny, Timmy, Kevin, Trinikqua, and Lynnett and a host of other relatives and friends.

Services will be held Wednesday November 10,2021 at Pope Funeral Homes 2617 Pennsylvania Avenue SE Washington, DC 20020

Viewing 10:00 am Service 11:00 am Interment Quantico National Cemetery

Events

NOV Viewing 10:00AM

10

Pope Funeral Homes - Washington Chapel
DC, US

NOV Service

10

Pope Funeral Homes - Washington Chapel
DC, US

Comments

“ You have my sympathy and condolences. He always had a smile and a joy to talk to. Working with him in the Park Service was a pleasure. God Bless and may you all be safe. Take care

Kevin Tennyson - November 10, 2021 at 01:44 PM

“ Kevin Tennyson sent a virtual gift in memory of Mr. Lorenzo Mottina Smith, Jr.

Kevin Tennyson - November 10, 2021 at 01:38 PM

“ Kevin,
Only those who are lucky enough to have a brother can understand the bond between them and the pain of losing them. My heart aches for your loss, and I wish I could take the hurt away from you. My love and deepest condolences go out to you and your family.
Felicia (Fee)

Felicia Whitson - November 10, 2021 at 11:33 AM

“ To Francine and family, Kevin, and all of my cousins, know that my heart goes out to each of you on the passing of "Butch." Our lives will be forever filled with memories of what a great member of the family he's been, and the emptiness his absence brings. Although I can't be there in person, know that I am in spirit. May our dear cousin Rest in wonderful Peace, until the day of our reunion in Glory. Love you all all.

Gene Collins - November 10, 2021 at 11:02 AM

“ To the wife and family of my cousin.

Lorenzo Mottina Smith i am praying for y'all sorry i couldn't be there today but know i am here for the family i can't say im sorry because he is resting now and i know he wouldn't want to come back to this world he is at peace waiting to be called up from his rest to be with GOD and his Mother and other love ones so if you have be sad do it but rejoice after because there's no sadness in GOD i know you will miss him but he is okay and waiting on the day to see y'all again love you family and GOD be with you.

Elder. Mark R. Bodrick cousin of Lorenzo M. Smith

Elder. Mark R. Bodrick - November 10, 2021 at 09:50 AM