“ I remember lots of good times growing up with Aunt Martha, Uncle Bob, Ann and Marilyn. At one time we all lived in the same little neighborhood over in Parkland Apartments Southeast DC. I think if I remember correctly that Aunt Martha took my mom and dad over there one Sunday after church to look around and we liked it and moved in not to long after that.

Later on, while we were there you may not remember but it was Aunt Martha who took me to be baptized at her church over off Nichols Avenue - I think they changed the name of the street now but back then it was Nichols. I was about 7 or 8. She also had me over for the pancake breakfasts that the church had from time to time.

She was a great Aunt and I'm sure she's now reconnected with all the ones who've gone on before. I look forward to seeing her and the rest of the family one day and I'm sure they'll all be there to welcome us as I'm certain they are welcoming her in right now.
