“ To Brother Ronald and the entire Turner family; my condolences for your loss. No words can ever be enough to fill the sudden void you feel at this difficult and challenging time. My prayer, and it is my hope, that you all cherish and hold on to all of the memories and good thoughts you all have experienced in the life of your beloved wife, mother, and grandmother. While she is physically no longer here, take comfort in knowing that she is in the presence of our Heavenly Father, and ever present within your hearts, where she will always be. May the Lord be a comfort to you, now and always.

“ I knew Akemi when she, her parents and brother lived in the same apartment building in Trenton Park Apartments (which was then on 6th and Mississippi Avenue). Our birthdays were days apart. We kept in touch until about 20 years ago. I'm so sorry to learn of her transition and send my condolences to the family.
