

Mr. Albert Junior Randolph

February 15, 1945 - September 15, 2022

Albert Junior Randolph was born to the late Mamie Johnson and Albert Brooks on February 15, 1945. He departed this earthly life on September 15, 2022 at the Adventist Health Care Fort Washington Medical Center, Fort Washington, Maryland. Albert was born in Washington, DC, and received his formal education from Washington, DC public schools.

Albert devoted many years of his career to the General Services Administration, and then later in life worked at the White House as a supervisor under the Capitol Hill Building Maintenance, Inc. of the Custodial Department, where he later retired.

Albert's greatest blessing and joy was when he became a proud father of Wayne Randolph Thomas, Sr. He watched his son grow into a young man of whom he was exceedingly proud.

Over the past several years, Albert was a tenant at the Avalon Senior Apartment complex where he was presented the 'World's Best Resident Award' and known to many of the tenants for his culinary and barbecue skills on any given holiday. He was always ready and willing to help others where and when they needed assistance.

Family, friends, and coworkers, and even mere acquaintances could always count on Albert; he always tried to do whatever he could for anyone, encouraging and lifting up those who were discouraged. He offered all he had to his family and friends without any benefit to himself.

Albert is survived by one child, Wayne Randolph Thomas, Sr., and two grandchildren: Wayne Randolph Thomas, Jr, and Markita Rashawn Thomas. Albert is also survived by his sisters Beverly Randolph, (Maryland), Cynthia {Diane} Carr, (Maryland), and Helen Brooks, (Maryland); one nephew, Jonathan Randolph (Georgia), two nieces, Kiana Carr (North Carolina), Christina Horton (Maryland) and several other family members and friends.
