“ Indeed, I am saddened to learn that you're mourning the loss of your dear love one. However, it saddens our God even more. No doubt, you have many fond memories which will resurface from time to time. And because you do have memories, certainly shows that almighty God has memories as well. Therefore, with full confidence you can take comfort in knowing that he longs to restore perfect life to all those in his memory (Job 14:13-15; Rev 21:3, 4). Please accept my condolences at this most distressing time.

“ My uncle Alfred was a wonderful man. The memory that I has always stood out for me about him is Christmas at his house when I was a little girl and how we would visit him and Aunt Vera and he would always have a jar of quarters for all of us. I would be like Santa Claus. He was the kindness and real person I knew as a child. He always has a smile for us when we would visit and when I had children, he had that same smile. He will surely be missed.
