Andre was born in Camp Springs, Maryland at Malcom Grove Hospital on April 16, 1985 to Vincent and Donita Lee. He graduated with a GED and worked in many trades to find his passion, which ultimately led him to construction where he flourished and gained many skills. His superiors praised him for his hard work and dedication to always get the job done.

Andre's devotion to being a father was the true definition of a family man. He loved watching his children grow and always expressed how proud he was of his siblings. Andre's favorite line was "I'm taking it one day at a time". Although his life was cut short, Andre made an impact that will forever be

His presence will be missed dearly, and will remain forever in our hearts.

"This isn't goodbye, but see you later. We love you"
