“ Time is moving swiftly - I can't believe that it's been three years since your transition. You have been on my mind a lot lately. I have been praying for your children hoping that divine love and grace embraces and holds them always. There is NOTHING like a mother's love! I miss hearing your laugh in the office. Your sense of style was like no other. You carried yourself like a queen. I miss you dearly. Candice R. Davis

“ Angie,

*All this is new news to me. I'm so sad to hear of your passing. You we're my hanging partner back in the day and we had a lot of wonderful memories!!! My heart goes out to Romello and your girls. We never know when it's our time. God has bought another Angel home!!! I'm so sad right now I can't finish!
I love you sis.*

“ Angie...I want you to know that I admired your courage, your attitude and your strength. You fought a good fight. I will so dearly miss you, the talks we shared, the laughs, the trips taken with our kids, your laugh, just YOU period. I want you to know you will always have a place in my heart and that I will make sure your kids are comforted and that they will find the strength and be just as strong as you were. I love you and until we meet again My Friend.. you rest easy sis.. Love you much.
