“ I have know Angie since 6 grade, she will always be consider my forever friend. We didn't talk daily, but when we did it was as if we just talked minutes ago. I am so sad about your departure but have comfort in knowing your faith and love for our lord and savior. We go way back with so many memories to share, Angie I will never forget all the fun and laughter we shared throughout the years. I will always remember your spirit and friendships. The last time we talked we promise to get together soon, well I am going to hold you to it, so save me a set my forever friend. Love Bridget

“ Ms Angela M Vaughn and I grew up together and I can still see the smile on her face everytime that she would enter a room. Or she'll come down to my moms house to see my sisters after just waking up and you would have to give her an additional hr to wake up and then all the fun would start. I've always known her to be so happy but now GOD has plucked his flower 🌹 to return home. I will always remember that happiness within that voice and the smile on her wondrous face after a dose of MASH. SIHP Angie. Love You Girl
