

Mrs. Annie Mae Howie Freeman

August 15, 1915 - September 26, 2022

Annie Mae Howie Freeman was born on August 15, 1915, in Waxhaw, North Carolina. She was the third daughter of the late Mary Porter and Jay Nesbitt Howie and the wife of the late Otis Freeman. She went home to be with the Lord peacefully on September 26th, 2022, at the House of Joseph in Upper Marlboro, Maryland.

Annie Mae was a woman of God, a virtuous woman. She accepted Christ at El Bethel A.M.E. Zion Church in Lancaster, SC when she was 12 years old and as an adult joined Community United Methodist Church, Washington, DC where she remained a member until her passing. She was a member of the Community United Methodist Church choir and loved to sing.

She was educated in the Union County Public School System and moved to Washington, DC where she continued her education. She worked for the US Department of Treasury for 31 years in the Liberty Long Building as the Assistant Supervisor for Outstanding Check Claims. She retired from the US Department of Treasury in 1979.

Annie Mae enjoyed shopping, sewing, dressing and especially loved to coordinate her clothing and accessories. She liked to travel and loved tasty foods. She also enjoyed a good game of bid whist, reading mysteries and working crossword puzzles. You could always find her singing one of her favorite hymns.

She was preceded in death by her husband Otis Freeman; brothers: Johnnie, James, Julius, George, and Robert Howie; sisters: Bertha and Bessie Howie; and daughter Eva F. Thomas.

She leaves to mourn a son, Otis Freeman of Washington, DC; daughters: Juanita Thompson and Dorothy O. Taylor (stepdaughter) of Charlotte, NC; grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great great-grandchildren; a sister, Geneva Myers of Cleveland, OH; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.
