“ Dear Jackie, Tommie and Chino:

You all have my and Rhonda's condolences during this most difficult time. What a blessing that your mother lived such a long, fruitful and blessed life!! We know no words can adequately ease your grief and sadness. She is at peace now and you all will see her again on the other side...

Matthew 25:21 - "Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!"

“ To Jackie, Tommie and Chinoand to My Dear Aunt Annie:

It is so wonderful to share my heartfelt love and pay tribute to my dear, sweet and beloved Aunt Annie. Always, always cool....unflappable, rock-steady, a beautiful and ready smile and the biggest heart of anyone. She was always there for me and Marie, she helped raised and cared for Alisha and she loved us all, me, Marea, Alisha, Twyone, Gilles, Mabou and Aliyah. When I think of our beautiful memories of growing up on Pomeroy Road with our dear cousins Jackie, Tommie and Chino, there are always memories of Aunt Annie and how we all used to walk down Morris Road to Miles Long and the wonderful Sunday walks to good ol' Bethlehem Baptist Church with Mom and Aunt Annie "keeping watch" over our frisky selves....me, Jackie and Marie. So many good memories....so much, much love!

I know that Aunt Annie, Deaconess Kearney, is resting in the arms of God, whom she loved and served all of her life....and she has joined that celestial "Deaconess Board" of our Heavenly Host. My dearest Aunt Annie, and to our cousins Jackie and Tommie and Chino....God speed and love conquers all....YOU ALL TOOK GOOD CARE OF AUNT ANNIE....NOW IT IS GOD'S TURN AND HE WHO HAS GUIDED YOU WILL TAKE OVER NOW. I am writing this from Ethiopia where I am attending a conference.....and so sorry I cannot be there with you all but I am sending my prayers and my unconditional love.

But Aunt Annie is drying my tears and as she did when Momma passed to become an angel. She is telling me....and all of you...Dry Your Eyes and Your Tears....I am truly all right now. God's best to you Aunt Annie....We will always love you. Lenda (Dellaphine), Marea, Alisha, Gilles, Mabou, Twyone and Aliyah
