Barbara called me her "ill" little white friend. My first week in DC she made sure I went to church a couple times, introduced me to the PHASE crew, and took me to Walgreens for medicine when I almost called in sick my second day of work. That night she and Stephon escorted me to the Metropolitan, where I have loved telling people for years, that I WAS THE ONLY NORWEGIAN THERE. She made Fonz be a gentleman and sit by me while she and Kenny were SANGIN. He was my first and last church date. I'm so sorry I didn't know she had passed and I missed my chance to ask Cutty if he remembers the night I threw off his church game. It was back in 1988 and he was just a little tyke. Had tried to give himself a haircut and mama brought the law down on him. I loved this girl. And lucky me, I know she loved me back. We used to sing I Love You Porgie, duet style. If anyone deserves the heaven she was promised it is my friend Barbara Green Greene. She and Kenny have some rehearsing to do. This woman was loved by her whole FMS family. She was just good as gold and took me under her wing when I was 35 so she could raise me up to be a proper DC girl. She must have told me a thousand times, "Girl, you are SO ILL." She was a girl's girl, a child of God, and she taught me how to say "Souff-East." I loved your mama Fonz. I'm thinking of that sweet little boy who sat next to me at church and hoping you're amongst friends and family who know how much this force of nature will be missed. 💙💙 Ginger Brown
