Barbara's family later moved to Virginia where she was educated in the Newport News Public School System and graduated from George Washington Carver High School. She joined the United States Army in 1960 where she served as a Medical Corpsman. Once honorably discharged, she relocated to the Washington, DC area. In the mid 1960's, she enrolled in nursing classes at Prince Georges Hospital where she obtained a Practitioner's Nursing License and later worked at Washington Hospital Center. Bab's as she was affectionately called, decided to pursue entrepreneurship and opened her first store, Bab's Boutique on 14th Street, NW. She later moved to Maryland and opened Bab's Records. Bab's wore many hats during her lifetime; she had a televised fitness show, she was a CTV board member, a travel agent with Carnival Cruises, an avid golfer at Langston Golf Course, a member of many organizations including the KIWANIS Club and Rotary Club. She was a pillar in the community, a dependable volunteer and always ready to assist anyone in need. Barbara married her long time love, William M. Bundy on November 20, 2006. Together they continued business at Bab's Records until her health began to fail. Bab's will always be remembered for her smile, infectious laugh and love for her sports cars and beloved dogs (Peppy and Pepsi).
