“ I miss Bruce's kind heart. One of the many fond memories that I have of Bruce is when I would encounter him at the Post Office downtown DC. He would have Little Brucie in his arms. Brucie would snuggle in his father's neck as I had a baby-talk conversation with him (Little Brucie). When my mother transitioned, Bruce came from Arlington, TX to the hospital in Fort Worth, TX. He stayed with me from late afternoon to almost midnight so that I would not be alone as MuDeah transitioned. He was the comfort and support that I needed as I lost my best friend---MuDeah! Family, know that you are in my prayers as we mourn the loss of a brother and real friend. Rest in peace with the Father, Bruce.
