Dear Kaye --

Your husband must have been a treasure, to have earned your love. I'm sorry not to be at the service, but I plan to sit in on the video of it.

*With love,

“ I am sending my condolences to the family. I met Cowboy many years ago and always enjoyed being his presence, along with his wife, Kaye. He was a man full of jokes and laughter and would be in the mist of dancing. I missed him coming to our annual gathering at Ronald's house. When he wasn't in attendance I always asked about him. May his soul and spirit be at rest and his memories linger on with us all.
