

Carl Anthony Hattley

January 20, 1957 - October 12, 2018

Carl Anthony Hattley (Tony) was born on February 20, 1957, in San Francisco, CA to Emerlene Oliver and the late Curtis Roosevelt Hattley. He departed this life on October 12, 2018, in St Louis, MO.

At 2 years of age, the family moved to Washington, DC, where he later attended public schools and attended Walker Memorial Baptist Church, under the pastorate of Rev. Reginald M. Green. He was united in holy matrimony to Wandatte Royster on February 4, 1980. To this union two sons were born. Even before his teen years, Carl revealed his love for the mechanics and music. If you broke it, he could fix it; if he dreamed it, he could build it, or make it happen. His first introduction to music was learning to play the bass. As a bassist, he was a member of Spellbound and TT Strutt. His love of music and carpentry lead him to build "Songwriter's Recording Studios". Many of the local groups in the DMV made their first recording of original songs at Songwriter's Studio. Those groups include Redd's and the Boys, Icee Hott, Impressario, Lil Benny & the Masters, Mannekin, Mtume, Tyrone Brunsen, DJ Kool, The Prajekt, Guitarist Mike Scott, CJ's Uptown Crew, and many more. After a serious accident that impaired his ability to follow his first love, Carl joined WMATA and retired as a Construction Inspector, Communications Division.

He leaves to mourn his passing, Emelene Hattley (mother), sons, Carl Anthony Jr (LC), Curtis Samuel; two grand-children, Aniya and Carl A Hattley,

III; nieces, Talaya and Nicole (daughters of his late brother, Curtis Hattley), and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

Family of the late Mr. Hattley will receive visitors on Friday October 26, 2018 10 am, at Walker Memorial Baptist Church 2020 13th St NW, Washington, DC 20009. Interment Maryland National Cemetery.
