“ To the Family of Pastor Campbell,
We are blessed to have known Mrs. Carolyn.
We have been longtime friends of Pastor
Campbell and Mrs. Carolyn Campbell, by previously attending the same church.

Carolyn's smile and personality were so bright and cheerful, and we know she was a blessing to her present church and community. Our prayers are with Pastor Campbell, Angela, and the entire family during this time. The family of Elder Frank Walton (dec.) from First Baptist Church of Glenarden.

“ I remember those wonderful 4th of July cookouts at Grandmom's house and Carolyn always smiling and helping. when I was younger; Carolyn would always send my grandfather (Tennison) her uncle a homemade Fruit Cake every Christmas and it was the best. We will miss you Carolyn. We will keep the family in our prayers. Blessings! Kaye

“ To the family of Sister Carolyn Campbell,

On behalf of Elim Baptist Church, we extend our deepest sympathy to you in the loss of Mrs. Campbell.. We were honored to meet Mrs. Campbell many years ago during our ministry at Gladys Spellman Nursing Home. She always greeted the residents and every one present with a beautiful smile. She loved singing her favorite hymns during praise and worship. May God continue to bless you richly as you reflect on the precious memories of her life.

“ Sometimes words are hard to come by when someone who was very special to you has passed. However, if anyone in the past years had the opportunity to meet my friend Carolyn then you would know early on she was a very humble person who had a tremendous passion to help and encourage others (especially kids, the youth, seniors).

The Campbell and Robinson family connection bonded well when our girls were in elementary school. A chance meeting that was meant to be. I so enjoyed in the early years our conversations and hopes that our children would get a higher education. It was done! I cannot emphasize enough the joy Carolyn had for her daughter Angela to complete college plus additional degrees, certifications and much more.

If there was a role model, Sister Carolyn Campbell was the lady. She took on the responsibility as a career woman, wife and mother and still took time to be of service to the community, church, neighbors, friends and extended family. As a beautiful wife and mother she dressed very appropriately and oh she was a good cook and loved to bake cakes and pies. She enjoyed the arts, my memory of the girls at her invitation to attend a Christmas play in Washington, DC during their elementary school years.

To continue the legacy of encouragement to others, I am in hopes that others will follow in the steps of my friend Carolyn who did make a difference in the life of those who had the opportunity to meet her. Being humble, having compassion and love for others can do wonders!

*Peace, Love and Many Blessings to the family.

“ It was my greatest honor and pleasure to care for Mrs. Campbell. She was a resident in Rita's Adult Home Care, of which I am the owner. I am grateful for the opportunity to serve Mrs. Campbell, Rev. Campbell and family. God in His divine wisdom has called home another soul to be with Him. She will never be forgotten. Peace and blessings.

“ Precious memories. As a teenager I would come and spend summers with Reverend Campbell and Caroline Campbell. These memories were precious in that as a young, budding minister of the gospel, I receive training and saw the fruit of a dedicated woman of God serving in the ministry. Her food was delicious and I often went back for seconds and thirds. I was also notably impressed by her education and her secular work with the government. We would talk for hours upon hours on her accomplishments. She was a sweet, humble woman. Whenever she spoke, they were words of substance and essence. I valued her ideas and strong desire to see others around her to succeed and excel. She will be missed beyond words. Continued grace and blessings to the family. Reverend Odell Glenn Jr., PhD
