“ Carolyn, You are and remain a dear Friend. Genese, May the Grace of God that shone so brightly in and through your mother provide you the comfort in knowing how loved you are and how like her you become everyday. May the comfort of the Holy Spirit, sustain you in understanding she knew and was a child of God. Grandson, your Grandmother spoke not only so highly but was extremely proud of the young man you were becoming and often spoke with me of you. Family, Friends, and Coworkers, you know how Carolyn not only loved, valued, and respected you, but your reflection of God and what was right. Continue to be comforted in strength having been in her presence and touched by her. She is present with the Lord and will rejoice when she sees we made it as well in her effervescent way.
