“ I will always remember Uncle Cary's laugh and his comment to me, "Adrienne, you getting so tall, you are so tall". He had a kind and giving heart. When we were little, he would always give me change to get candy at Lift's Store when Angela and me stayed at grandma's house.

May God provide comfort and peace during this difficult time.

“ I’m so sorry that you had to leave us. My funny and sweet Uncle. Now you’ve released your mortal coil and you are now resting in the Eternal Arms of God, relieved of your suffering. I’m so sorry. And may God comfort your family and send people who will always lend a hand or shoulder as they grieve your absence. I love you Uncle Cary. Bobby “Buttermilk” says goodbye and that he loves you, too.
