

Mrs. Chardon Lynette Thomas

March 12, 1981 - February 8, 2025

Following a heroic battle with Stage IV breast cancer, Chardon Lynette Thomas of Washington, D.C. departed this life, surrounded by loved ones on February 8, 2025, at the age of 43.

Chardon was a devoted mother, wife, caring daughter, and sister. She will be remembered fondly for her fierce love, unyielding courage, and grace even during the most trying time.

Her cherished memory will continue to live on through her devoted family. Chardon was a force. Her smile and the sound of her voice will echo forever in our hearts. Loved ones are welcome to share in the radiance of Chardon's beautiful spirit as we celebrate her showcase of life on February 22, 2025.

“ From the fourth grade, up until now you've been an amazing being and light. I asked the Most High to continue to shine through your beautiful boys. You were never catty gossipy,. At least not with me. We loved life, We loved joy and laughter and your laugh was very powerful, We loved to dance ,We love to sing. Most of all, we love getting our nails done and you were a great nail technician and braider when you had the time -space. I will miss your vibrations here with ..but your frequency will forever live on rest well my Queen, You did it all with the smile! To the family, thank you for sharing such a magnificent light being with us. All my love, Janine

“ They say you never know your real friends til they are gone.... For so long you have been a light to me C, even with everything going on in the world and in your life, "I'm your friend you can talk to me", you'd explain this with the most loving smile. I never wanted to dim it with my life, so I'd stay away. Our last conversation, was you fussing at me again, and now I will never get to hear you call or text. I will miss my light. I Love You, C!!! GOD just had other plans for you. You fought a great fight, now you can rest.
