“ I was so caught off guard to hear this from my daughter about my x husband, Charles was her step father. He continued to watch over her until his last day on earth. He was complex and private. He did good to many people. I am not sure what happened to him because he was picky about his food and in great shape. But I had not seen him in year's. I assumed he would be here way longer than me. I loved him from the day we met even after we parted ways. I did wish him well and quite sad even after all this time. To his mother, sisters and family. I am sincerely sorry for your loss. I know how he felt about you all. May the time that has gone by give you much comfort and your memories bless you. May he rest in peace.

“ *Chuck Davis was an intelligent and considerate person whose heart was made of gold . He was always willing to help those in need and those that needed help - a little push to get on the right footing - I miss him tremendously for the decent-hearted person that he was. RIP. “ I am very sad to learn of the passing of my friend Chuck. He always had a wide and gracious smile whenever we met. We met through NOBLE and developed a kinship after we retired from a career we both loved. Chuck will be greatly missed but heaven has gained an Angel. My deepest condolences to the Davis family.

“ I cannot believe my friend is gone. I've known Chuck since 1995. He lived with me for weeks before he moved to Maryland. Chuck was the most humble man I have ever known. I've been trying to reach him since we last spoke on the 9th. Knew something was wrong and found out today through a mutual friend. My thoughts prayers and broken heart are with his family.

“ Chuck was one of the most humble person I've ever known. He was an admirable gentlemen, kind, great sense of humor and truly compassionate. Thank you for the influence you've had on me. The positivity you've always expressed towards me and the jewels you've given me.
