

Mr Charles N. Hawkins, II

May 21, 1962 - February 23, 2024

Charles N. Hawkins II was born on May 21, 1962, at John Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland, to the late Charles Nathaniel Hawkins (Master Sergeant US Air Force) and Cynthia (Jones) Hawkins. Charles spent his formative years traveling and living on various military bases where his father was stationed including Germany, Turkey, California, and Washington, DC. Charles was a track and field star at his high school in California, before transferring to Ballou High School in Washington, DC where he would meet his future wife, Liz, in 1979 while in the 11th grade. They would later marry on June 1, 1998. Charles served six years in the military. He enlisted in the US Army in March 1983 completing his basic training at Fort Jackson in Columbia, South Carolina, and his advanced individual training at Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio, Texas. He was later stationed in Germany; Fort Benning and Fort Gordon in Georgia, and Fort Hood in Texas, where he completed his military obligation in 1989. Afterwards, he returned to Maryland.

After the military, Charles worked for the National Cathedral and the Maryland National Capital Park and Planning Commission before obtaining a position at the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) in August 1998, as a Laborer. His last position held at VA was Materials Handler (Leader). He worked for VA for a total of 25 years. Charles enjoyed playing the guitar, listening to music (his favorite artist was Jimi Hendrix), movies, video games, fishing, traveling, taking cruises, going to buffets, watching football (The Commanders), and watching funny cat videos on YouTube.

Charles is survived by his wife, Elizabeth (Smith) Hawkins; his mother Cynthia Hawkins; brother, Christopher Hawkins, daughter Courtney and a host of family, friends, and colleagues.
