“ From sister Alice, growing up in d.c. mom made me deliver Washington post, with my brother Cornelius early morning, I was no older than 4 years old. I would never forget that, I don't remember whether I gotten paid or not. My brother 1st bike Xmas, I broke it Cornelius had a fit ,he put my head on plater, I drove that bike into Perry elementary school, it bent the front tire, Cornelius sent me packing, he never forgave me. Lol love that memory.
