“ To Currie Jr, Eddie James and Family, I am saddened by the loss of my cousin Curlie Sr (Tunkie). The last time I saw him was a few years ago in Phenix City and we had a good conversation about numerous things. I am thankful to have been a part of your family tree, specifically, first cousin. The times we shared will be forever treasured as memories down through the years. As you have crossed over the threshold of time and entered into eternity, sleep in heavenly PEACE. We love you eternally. Eugene Pitts
