

Ms. Deborah Carolyn Taylor - Womack

March 15, 1951 - February 26, 2025

Deborah Carolyn Taylor - Womack, born on March 15, 1951 was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, cousin, and friend, passed away surrounded by love on February 26, 2025, at the age of 73. She was a woman of warmth, kindness, unwavering strength, and generosity, leaving behind a legacy of love that will forever be cherished by those who knew her.

Deborah was a native Washingtonian. She was educated in the D.C. Public School system where she graduated from Ballou Senior High School. She started her career in public service where she dedicated 29 years to the federal government working as an office clerk and executive secretary. She continued to make a difference as a Safety Technician for the D.C. Government's Department of Transportation until her retirement in 2022.

Beyond her career, Deborah was best known for her radiant smile, one that could brighten any room and lift the spirits of everyone she encountered. A devoted member of First Baptist Church of Fairmount Heights, she attended services faithfully, whether in-person or online, and her faith remained an anchor in her life. Family was everything to her. More than anything, she treasured the time spent with family and friends, creating memories filled with love and laughter.

She leaves behind a legacy of love, cherished by her significant other, 2 children; 3 stepchildren; and 15 grandchildren. She is also survived by her 5 siblings as well as a host of nieces, nephews, extended family and dear friends.

Funeral services will be held to honor her remarkable life on March 15, 2025, at the First Baptist Church of Fairmont Heights. A viewing will take place at 10:00 AM, followed by the funeral service at 11:00 AM. Friends and family are warmly invited to join in celebrating her life and legacy.

“ Deborah’s beautiful smile will always be a memory in my mind. She was always so loving and friendly to me every time we crossed paths which wasn’t often but seemed as if we had seen each other just yesterday. Rest in peace Deborah until we meet again.
