February 13, 1957 - January 16, 2025

Debra Anne Raji was born on February 13, 1957 in Prince Georges County, MD to Hamilton Ignacious Plummer Sr. and Rosa Marie Johnson. Debra was raised in Washington, DC and educated in DC Public Schools. Early in life she enjoyed poetry and writing poems. She would later follow her brother Robert into modeling, igniting a love for fashion. Debra would work hard to save money for shopping, her favorite pastime. Her fashion style was admired by many that knew her. Debra also loved music with Minnie Ripperton, Stephanie Mills, Donny Hathaway and Sade being among her favorites but her number one was Phyllis Hyman.

In 1970 Debra met and fell in love with David Moore. Five years later their love would result in the birth of her son Damone Plummer. Once her son was born Debra would find a love for customer service as she would become the front entrance manager of The Capital Childrens Museum throughout the eighties. Debra would eventually work for and retire from The District of Columbia Housing Authority. There she would often encounter clients in public that would greet her and tell her how nice of a person she is. Not one to stay idle too long, Debra would begin work as a concierge for Gateway Georgetown Condominiums where she was truly loved by the tenants and staff.

Debra opened a new chapter later in life when she was swept off her feet by
