“ This is going to be hard. But here is it goes. Thank you for blessing us with a precious being who touched our lives. She wall a energy, beacon of light. She was bold,electric and joy to be around. Even in her dark times she was the force to inspire all of us to rise like a eagle and soar. Decarla I am proud of you man. You did that. You inspire us to walk in our purpose and never fold. To be confident and walk in greatness. Decarla faith in God and being a great mother,grandmother,sister,aunt,daughter cousin and friend. I am sad and hurt that my baby is gone. All I got to do is look up with tears in my eyes. Decarla you are with me man. Rest in Peace baby. See you in the Morning...

“ The fine memories that I would have of my cousin Decarla, is when she would come to Baltimore to visit me and hang out with me. the one that I will never forget, is when her and Renee came to Baltimore to celebrate my 50th birthday. I am going to miss the long phone calls that we would have every now and then. Family I love y'all 🍷🍷🍷🍷🍷🍷💕💕💕🙏🙏🙏
