

DENISE MARINA ROYSTER

April 30, 1951 - November 20, 2024

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Denise Marina Royster, who gracefully left this world on November 20, 2024, at the age of 73. Born on April 30, 1951, in Washington, D.C., Denise devoted her life to education as a cherished teacher in the D.C. Public Schools, inspiring countless students with her passion for learning and her unwavering kindness.

Denise's family was her heart, and she dedicated herself to nurturing and supporting them throughout her life. Denise's warmth, wisdom, and love will be profoundly missed by all who knew her.

In celebration of Denise's life and legacy, a funeral service will be held at the National Church of God on December 6, 2024, at 11:00 AM, with a wake preceding the service at 10:00 AM.

Denise Marina Royster leaves behind a legacy of love, compassion, and dedication to her family and students. Her spirit will continue to inspire all those who were fortunate enough to cross her path. In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that donations be made to educational charities in her honor, ensuring that her passion for teaching lives on.
