“Dexter, I'm going to miss you. We worked together for 12 years, and in that time, you became my friend. There wasn't one day you entered my classroom without greeting me with an enthusiastic "Mrs. Young! What's up? How's it going???" I loved our conversations about tropical vacations and all the fun you had to look forward to on your next planned trip each year. Thank you for encouraging me to just get away to a beautiful place. "You never know how much time you got," you'd say, "Just do it!" Thank you for being such a kind soul, Dexter. You worked so hard day and night, and you were a man of integrity. I'll miss your friendship, sir. Who will I discuss the chance of snowfall with??? And now I wish you the longest, most beautiful (and very sunny) tropical vacation of a lifetime, my friend. No more work. Just relaxation. I'll see you in the topics one day, Dexter. Rest peacefully, my friend. -Lisa ("Mrs. Young")💕💕

Since I came to join the custodial crew at Atholton Elementary School two years ago , you proved to me that you were a team player , kind , loving , trainer , and had a lot of experience on the job. You were such a person to be worked with . Your untimely demise is a challenge and very difficult for me to handle as I am now the only person left behind in the whole building when the teachers leave. Oh death , why did you take Dexter now?*

Fare thee well , Dexter , Fare thee well. We will surely meet on the resurrection morning. Rest peacefully in the bosom of the Lord until we meet again. Amen!!!
