

Diana Lorraine Johnson

March 12, 1958 - June 6, 2017

Diana Lorraine Johnson, 59, transitioned peacefully on June 6, 2017 after battling cancer. She was born in Washington DC on March 12, 1958 to Herbert and Pearl Baylor. She graduated from Potomac High School in 1976.

On July 27, 1983, she was married to Horace A. Johnson Jr. in Washington DC. They have two children.

Diana began her federal career at the Library of Congress in 1975. She later went on to work with the Department of Defense. She retired from the Pentagon in 2014 leaving behind a close-knit work family. After retiring, Diana enjoyed spending time with her family, watching westerns, reading, baking, crocheting, and gardening.

She was an active member of Our Lady Of Perpetual Help Roman Catholic Church and served with the Ladies of Charity and the Bereavement Ministry. Diana was always seen by her three brothers and sister as their "second mother". Diana made a significant impact on everyone who knew her by always putting everyone else's needs ahead of her own. She was always honest and supportive by forcing you to look at a situation from every perspective, even if it wasn't what you wanted to hear. She was a confidant to many and will truly be missed.

She is survived by her husband Horace Johnson Jr. of 33 years; her daughter Chalita (Eric); and son Neil. She also leaves her mother, Pearl, three brothers, Herbert Jr., Mitchell (Mary), James (Charlene), and her sister Lisa (Ricardo). Two brothers-in-law Howard and Tyrone(DeeDee). She also has five nieces Andrea, Autumn, Nicolette, Faith, and Micayla and six nephews Charles (Ziggy), Xavier, Christian, Ricardo (RJ), Zacharias, and Xander; and a host of close and dear relatives.

“ Our family (Langley) have known the Baylor family for over 40 years. We have laughed together and cried together and hold many fond memories. Diana was always very sweet and had a quiet demeanor, once you met her she was your friend for life. To the Baylor and Johnson family, may you find peace and comfort in knowing that Diana is resting in the arms of our Savior .
