“ Katherine and family, I too am deeply saddened for your loss. Dieudonne was a true inspiration to all members of the Knights of Columbus, but definitely the DC Knights. During State and Council meetings he exemplified dignity, class and most important diplomacy. I will miss his words of wisdom, his participation in events and his undying spirit to move projects and ideas forward! I thank You, Your Family and the Lord for allowing us to be graced with his presence.

Sincerely,

*Gregory W. Jackson, PDGK

“ Dear KATHERINE and family.

Both my wife, Evelyn, and I were sadly surprised at DIEUDONNE's recent passing. I found him to be a great friend, and a privilege to know. Many conversations were shared in discussing his desire to earn a doctorate degree. I will never forget your guy KATHERINE, and will remember the NDOUGA family in my thoughts and prayers.

In closing, I find some satisfaction in knowing the relationship of doing The LORD's work with Fr. SAM has been re-established . To KATHERINE and family, please accept my sincere apologies for not knowing you all better.

“ I met Dieu in 2012 while on a Mission appeal trip to Washington DC, this man left a great impact in my life and was amazed by his ability to connect to many people.

Within a short notice, he had coordinated a meeting for us with various congress men at the capital and we just had a great moment together.

Dieu, your death has been a Great shock to us who knew you, The Archbishop of Kisumu -Kenya sincerely sends his prayer and condolences to your family.

We thank you for being a light to the world and for touching all people with your faith that was embodied in your love for all. You will dearly be missed by us who knew and loved you.

Thank you for living your vocation to its fullness, for being salt and light to the world.

In God's Hands your happily rest; in our hearts your truly live as a great inspiration with great marks of indelible joy that will never know a sunset.
