“ Mr. Layton Layton,
I will always remember the smiles and laughter you and I share over the years. We never knew when to take you serious Black Boy! I went through phases about your death... I got mad that I didn't know you were even sick (I could've been there to help out). But I figured you didn't want us to see you that way, but to remember you as we did. You know we would've had some jokes flowing though!! Lol!

I then got sad to acknowledge that you are no longer with us in the physical (again, knowing you, you didn't want us going through that either. But then I accepted what had to happen and became happy to know that you are no longer suffering, you aren't in pain any more and you don't have to deal with this crazy world we have to live in.

Although on joke time, ALL the Time!! I knew in my heart that the love for his family and friends was genuine and something special.

I will truly miss my friend!

Sending our prayers, condolences and love to your wife, daughters, mom, sister and family...

Your friend,
Sheena,

*Emerie, Ari, Mo-Mo (my mom that he HAD to check up on every time I spoke with him) and family!

“ Sending my sincere condolences to Layton family. Donzell would always greet me with his smile, speaking in a low tone, as I would asked the question. He would respond and laugh "I DON'T KNOW" (well trained BeeBee). Seriously, BeeBee I can ONLY imagine what you are going through right now, but I take comfort knowing you know the Lord and His Will will be done. I'm reminded "For if I Suffer, I'LL gain ENTERNAL LIFE". Suffer no more Donzell. Peace be with you BeeBee, In Jesus name Amen
