

Doris Elizabeth King Mack

August 22, 1927 - April 9, 2015

God whispered, "You are Mine" and at those transporting words Mother Doris Elizabeth King Mack ran with joy the shining way to meet her gracious Lord on Thursday, April 9, 2015. Doris Elizabeth Mack was born to Raymond and Elizabeth Lee King of Philadelphia, PA, on August 22, 1927. She was educated in the Philadelphia School system attending West Philadelphia High School. Doris grew up in a family of entertainers. Doris was joined in marriage to Robert William Mack on October 7, 1944, to this union was born a son and a daughter, Ronald and Bunny Mack. God blessed Doris and Robert with 70 wonderful years of marriage. Mother Mack loved the Lord and was so grateful that He chose her to serve His people; she served well everyone she knew, she always had a kind and spirit-filled word for you and had such a giving heart towards all people. If she had what you needed, she would extend her hand to help you from her heart, and her children called her blessed. She lived a life of service to hear her Savior say:

"Well done thy good and faithful servant, Now come and receive your reward in Heaven." She left to cherish her beautiful memory her husband, Elder Robert William Mack; children, Ronald Mack (Shirley) and Bunny Elizabeth Relerford; four grandchildren, Michael Kevin Relerford (Lisa), Lavette Mack-Spence (Aaron), Kenya T. Relerford, Sean Mack (Nereida); five great-grandchildren, Rashida Elizabeth Berger, Kenneth Recardo Berger, Callie Michelle Relerford, Elisa Relerford and Jaiden Mack; brothers, Raymond A. King, Jr. (Elaine) and Kearney King (Marie), and a host of nieces and nephews, other loving relatives, her church family and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents, brothers, Dennis King (Loretta) and Norman Lee Wideman.
