“ Mrs. Dorothy Jamison, as you transition from earth to heaven, even though I never met you, I am sure you heard your daughter Dorothy speak of Jeanie and Vickie (two sisters from Dallas who were her play sisters). Dorothy has been and still remains today one of the most precious, loving and caring friends I have ever met and I know the saying is real when I see your beautiful face on pictures she shared with us that "The Apple Doesn't Fall Too Far From The Tree." Therefore she mimics you, the very perfect Mother whom I know she loves with every inch of her. Thank you for raising and instilling in her a life of trustworthiness and goodness and loyalty. God bless your soul and I hope as you transition into heaven that my Mother, whom Dorothy had the pleasure of meeting, will meet you and greet you and become your heavenly soul mate and sister and the two of you can righteously brag on how perfect of a Mother you both were and how you raised your girls to be the same.
Sincerey,
