“ Mrs Satterwhite today I celebrate you in hearing of your passing from labour to reward. I will never forget your beautiful face, your warming personality, and your unselfish acts of kindness that spoke volumes of who you were as a woman of God. Thank you for blessing me, supporting my business, and blessing my girls. Thank you for showing me what and how a seasoned woman of God should look like and how to carry oneself.. You will be truly missed and this is not a good bye but a celebratory message from me to you in the transitioning to your glorified life with your Savior.. May God continue to Bless and keep all of those you left behind.. With Kindest regards to the Middleleon Satterwhite Family! From Bea Wright & Family

*Mrs. Middleton Sattlewhite,
I just heard of your transition from labour to rest. To the family, Ms. Middleton, was my fourth grade teacher in the year of 1965 at King and Queen Elementary School located in King and Queen County Virginia. She was loved by all of her students. We still remember her and speak of her whenever we get together. My condolences and sympathy to the family. She will always be remembered because she was one of my favorite teachers. May God bless her soul and may she rest eternally.*

Love ❤️ you always Ms. Middleton/Mrs. Sattlewhite your Student, Dr. Jerome Boyd

“ Aunt Jean would often share with me my family history and background! I have spent a great deal of time on the phone with her talking about all subjects. I will miss those conversations! Love and Blessings, RIH 🙏❤️
