Although i wasn't able to physically attend Ms. Coleman 's services I send my deepest condolences to the entire family. Ms. Coleman was a blessing to everyone who encountered her in life and just like everyone whom spoke highly and truthful of her I experienced alot of what they did she was an Authentic Mother who spoke uncut words of wisdom to anyone needing to be told. I loved her in this world and I'll have many memoirs to carry on in this life. She ran a hellava race and now she will peacefully rest in God's blossom with all that departed before her..Now i no longer have to wonder if Pappy is OK for I know she's in the safest place "The arms of a loving mother" rest peacefully Queens departed but never forgotten.from the "quiet girl with those Fat lips 💕"

“ While working at the Postal Services Ms. Coleman always had a word of encouragement for me and had a look when I was out of order that put me back on track. My deepest condolences to the Coleman family with all my love and blessings. Judy Barnett (Simmons).

“ Ms. Coleman was always an uplifting spirit who didn't mince her words, whatever the situation you got an honest answer. Whether, you liked it or not. Loved to laugh, a good joke and family gatherings, but always a straight shooter. She would put you in your place, if you forgot to show respect. Rest in eternal peace, Ms. Coleman. Thanks for showing us all how to keep things on the up and up. 🤞💕🙏
