“ Dear Campbell Family,

I have fond memories of both your MoM & Dad making there home a comfortable gathering spot, any day of the week.

My memories have your Dad posted-up in front of the stove working on incredible aromas and your MoM takin the tyme to come outside and greet me at my vehicle, on thoz dayz that I had other engagements to attend to and couldn't step-in after dropping-off "Biggie" and Sunshine, from our Sunday Worship Services OR shopping trips.

Although I'm now away from my beloved DMV area, performing Caretaking & Advocacy for my two remaining Patriarchs & Matriachs of the family, I never stopped envisioning the warm and welcoming open door policy at your D Street homestead and I hope it continues for unlimited generations to come, in the form of homage paid, to both your now reunited parents & grand parents... until we're all welcomed into their heavenly home, one by one, once again.

*Sincerely Yours,
Karen Charlton*
