“ To Pat’s family, please accept my most sincere condolences. I met Pat at her home during a family gathering through her sister, Sheila. She was so warm and welcoming. She made me feel right at home! I remember how much we talked and laughed that day. You could tell how much she loved her family and friends. I will continue to pray that God comforts and strengthens you today and in the days to come. Love you all.

“ My condolences to the family and my prayers are with Kim, DeJah, Sheila, Greg, Shawn and Emmanuel. Love you all. I met Pat thru her sister Sheila and she welcomed me into the family with joy. Over the years we had great times, some sad times together. But thru it all she was encouragement and strenght to all the family, church family, co-workers and those she met along her way. Be encouraged family. You had great times and some marvelous trips together. Remember the memories. Love you all!!

Pat, I will see you again on the other side of the PEARLY GATES!
REST MY SISTER! Family keep standing strong. ❤️🙏
