“ I just found out about Ervin's passing. When I just now, googled his name and his picture popped up next to his obituary, I am stunned, heartbroken, sadden, and empty inside. Ervin was my soul mate in college. We were so in sync, we instinctually knew what the other was thinking. We shared so many wonderful memories while in college. We didn't stay in touch afterwards, but today, I was searching for him to reconnect as a friendship like ours should have never ended. I am so sad.

“ My sincere and heartfelt condolences and prayers to the Bell family. I was Ervin’s first supervisor when he was appointed as a US Probation Officer in Washington, DC. He was extremely dedicated to his job, always pleasant and a hard worker. During this difficult time, I pray that each of you find strength in God and cherish the fond memories of Ervin. Rest In Peace Ervin.

“ Ervin and I were best friends in college. He was such a kind and loving soul. I will never forget his goofy laugh and how he used to model around me on the dance floor. He truly loved his family and will never be forgotten. My prayers go out to the family.

“ My condolences to the Bell Family. Ervin was my brother's classmate at Kinston High. He was always fun to be around and very smart. I know this time is not easy, but continue to look to the hills. He has given you so many memories which will live on within you. God bless you and I am praying for you all.
