

Ethel Lee Hartsfield

November 18, 1951 - April 22, 2020

Ethel Lee Patrick Hartsfield was born to the late Woodrow Patrick and Annie Mae Thomas Patrick on November 18, 1951, in Cheraw South Carolina. On April 22, 2020 after a long battle with cancer, she peacefully transcended to the next life at 7:13 am in her home. Bless it be the Lord of Creation.

After moving to Washington, DC in 1971, Ethel continued her growth and education while raising the two loves of her life, her two children Samuel and Lawanda. Ethel finally found her passion in the healthcare field and became a nursing assistant.

Ethel worked many tireless hours on her two fulltime nursing jobs as a Nursing Assistant for over twenty years. While battling cancer until the stages of cancer was too strong and caused her to have to cut back working.

Nevertheless, her humanitarian acts of giving to those she loved and anyone she came in contact with as well as family members and church members were blessed by her selfless giving helped to keep her busy until her final days

Ethel is survived by her one son Samuel Patrick, grandchildren Demarcus, Deiek, Samuel Jr. and Jessica Lee. Great grandson Demarcus, Jr., aunt Norma, sister Lizzy, brother Woodrod, niece Michelle, nephews Javon Kapin, Dorrell Lee and a host of other great nieces, nephews, cousins and coworkers.
