“ *To the Gunn Family,
We will remember Reverend Gunn for her bold declaration of the Word of God in her sermons. She was a Holy Ghost filled preacher.*

Especially cherished is her sermon, "She`s Got Issues." In that sermon, she used the scripture about the woman with the issue of blood to demonstrate how humanity has spiritual issues that only Jesus can resolve.

Be assured that she rests in the bosom of Jesus. You will be reunited with her in the Rapture of the saints. Continue in the Faith as Reverend Gunn did as a soldier for Christ.

“ I shared an office with Faye at T. C. Williams for several years while we were both coordinators for the work training program for students in the business department. Needless to say, there are many pleasant memories of working alongside her for those years. During those same years, I also worked with her husband, Fred, who also was a coordinator. I went by the church yesterday, Thursday, to pay my respects.

“The influence of a good teacher can never be erased”. These words took me back to memories of my George Washington and T.C. Williams High School years, Alexandria, VA. I was a student of Dr. Faye Gunn. She was one of the best teachers that I ever had in school. She made all of her students feel equally loved and cared for. I remember her quick wit and sense of humor.

In the educational stream, the most powerful force is the bond between a student and teacher. This bond leads to academic success and student empowerment. What makes Dr. Faye Gunn special was her mentoring style. She was a supportive mentor who inspired me to be me.

Many of the lessons students learn from their teachers are not mentioned in the syllabus. She was a teacher who always nurtured her students mind with positivity. Teachers who help students to grow as people impart some of the most important teachings of life.

I am thankful to Dr. Faye Gunn for going the extra mile. I have had several conversations with her telling how her kindness, support and interest in my character development has helped me in many difficult stages of my life.

Though my words are not enough to appreciate all the hard work Dr. Faye Gunn have done for her students, Alfred Street Baptist Church and community. I will always remember her taking the time to meet with me and listen. I feel so blessed and thankful to have known her as a constant source of motivation in my life.

Thank you, Dr. Faye Gunn for dedicating your time and energy in teaching, thank you for your never ending current affair discussions. Thank you for being my elder.

My deepest heartfelt condolences to Dr. Faye Gunn family, Alfred

Street Baptist Church family, Alexandria, VA and community. 🙏❤️

“To the of Family of the Rev. Dr. Faye Savage Gunn,

Please accept my deepest and heartfelt condolences. I am so sorry for your loss. I did not know Dr. Gunn well. But her gravitas, her witness, and her presence told me everything that I needed to know about her: a woman of God, a mentor and shepard to many, a powerful preacher; a loyal, protective and devoted family member. Her absence and her indelible impact, not only those who knew her, but also on those of us who had the privilege to observe and hear her from afar will last in the walls and hearts of your Alfred Street Baptist Church Family for generations to come. God be with you. God bless you. May God and those you hold dear comfort you.

*Yours in Christ,
