“ From the start, the odds were stacked against us. We were so young and naive, but deeply in love. We made so many plans...

We parted ways so long ago; for reasons that do not matter now. We will never know how things could have been. But I take great pleasure in knowing that our love story didn't end with us. It will be carried on through your first born, my first born, our first born. And through her and her off spring(s), our story continues. Until we meet again old friend.

Your forever "Teenage Sonata"

P.S.

I'll always cherish those times when you would sing to me every chance you got. You had such a beautiful voice! Teenage Sonata was just one of our songs...

Whoa

Here, here in the moonlight

Hold me while I sing to you

My teenage sonata

Of my love

Eternally true

It's written and filled with devotion

From deep in my heart

And with my teenage sonata

Comes a prayer that we'll never part

And as long as we love it will stay

We'll hear it on our wedding day

Whoa

My lips can only kiss you

They can explain how you make me feel

But my teenage sonata

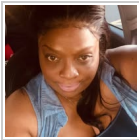

Will tell you that my love is real

*My love is real
My love is real*
