“ Your passing happened within a few days of me finding out that your homegoing was near. It was so unexpected. But I knew that it was God's will. I am so thankful that you and my mother were the best of friends for over 60 years. I am even more thankful that you extended your home, and your love to us in our time of need because of the loving, caring, and considerate person that you were. You made a great impact on my life. You might have thought that I was not paying attention but I was. I will always remember your strong spirit and your beautiful smile. I know that you and my ma are in heaven reminiscing about the good old days. Thank you so much for loving me.
