“ My Beautiful Friend and Favorite “Cozy Comedienne” always dressed
In a MooMoo nightgown and house slippers...Momma G, Thank you so much for all you have done to support me as I grew into young womanhood. You opened the heart of your home to me as I prepared for to become a wife...you encouraged me to think independently about life’s choices and challenges and you included me in your life as a part of your extended family. Thank you for the love, laughter and memories as my “hilarious housemate” and “lovable landlord” ...I will cherish our bond forever. I love you from here to Heaven. Rest in Power, My Queen! 💕💕💕
