Glenn was born in Britton, South Dakota to Ira and Sarah Catherine Lord on July 13, 1930. Glenn was the product of blended families and thus had thirteen siblings. His father was a grain buyer who was well known for his integrity in dealing with his customers. His mother was a devoted Christian who raised her boys to become professional men with strong moral values. Glenn graduated from high school in Miltonvale, Kansas. From there he worked his way through college, taking time off to earn money by working on the Montana-Dakota Utilities pipeline in Western North Dakota and Eastern Montana, working under his brother Francis who was the foreman. His first pastorate was a student charge in 1952 at Rice, Kansas. His first full-time church was in Upland, Indiana in 1956 for the Church of the Nazarene. After graduating in 1960 from Nazarene Theological Seminary in Kansas City, Missouri his first full-time church as an ordained elder was First Church of The Nazarene in St. Paul, Minnesota.

His next charge was in Coffeyville, Kansas to the First Church of the Nazarene. There, he met and married Kaye Conrad on May 30th, 1966. He shared fifty-four wonderful years of marriage and ministry with her. They raised three children together, Glenn, Jr., Sherry, and Ryan.

Glenn served churches continuously for fifty-eight years from 1956 to 2014. After his marriage to Kaye, he served churches of the Nazarene in Scottsbluff and Omaha, Nebraska, Fairbanks, Alaska, and Mound City, Missouri. In 1980 he changed to the United Methodist Church and served churches in Edgeley and Carrington, North Dakota. In 1994 he semi-retired and accepted the call to serve Maine Presbyterian Church in rural Underwood, Minnesota. Glenn preached the gospel and went wherever God called him to be.

Family was very important to Glenn. He worked hard but he also effortlessly made time for his family. In 1982, with the help of his older brother Gordon, he was able to purchase property in Minnesota that had once belonged to his father, which brought him great joy. Having grown up in the dust bowl of the 1930s in South Dakota, his family's visits to Minnesota were like stepping into a green oasis. Wherever his life took him, the lake country of Minnesota was home. He was never happier than when he was out on the lake fishing.

Glenn is survived in death by his wife Kaye and their three children, Glenn Jr., Sherry, and Ryan, and his two grandsons, Christopher and Matthew.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Ira and Catherine Lord, and his siblings, Elva, Lucy, Charles, Lynn, Miles, Lela, Eileen, and Estill Lord, as well as his brothers Francis, Gordon, and Jerome Roget, and his baby sister Betty Catherine Lord.

“ Pastor Glenn was a man of integrity and grit. He lovingly served the Lord with his whole heart. He never compromised the word of God. He told me that his favorite book in the Bible was Mark. He was blessed with the gift of compassion and intellect. I will miss his stories and seeing him at his home. He truly loved his wife Kaye and knew that God had put them together. He playfully kidded his precious daughter Sherry over various things. He adored his daughter. His son Ryan, as well as his daughter Sherry, were gifts to him from God.

Pastor Glenn, will always hold a special place in my heart. I miss his voice...I grew to respect and love him.

“ Rev. Lord was very kind and friendly towards me from the first time that I came to visit Sherry in Underwood, Minnesota. I always felt welcomed by him and Kaye. They would always take Sherry and me on "road trips" to see parts of Minnesota when I visited and we always had fun, Sherry keeping us laughing on the way. They always went (I always felt) out of the way to make me feel at home, especially when we just stayed at home and watched TV and told stories. I loved his "car collection". And I loved attending services with them on Sunday, especially when Rev. Lord was preaching. And I'm a "papist (Catholic-LOL) who was always welcome at church as well.

Not to forget the trips on the lake with the strange suburbanite from up north who couldn't get over how very little traffic they had in Underwood compared to a town up north that used to be as rural as Underwood! Why would anyone want more traffic, he would ask.

I will miss Rev. Lord, especially when I get to visiting Sherry and her Mom again. Meanwhile, I know he is with the Lord, smiling down on Kaye, Sherry, and all his family as well as one strange Easterner! Rest in God's blessed, eternal peace, Rev. Lord!
