“ Aunt Gloria I am really going to miss you. You were always checking on me trying to make sure that I was doing ok and giving me words of encouragement. I’m sad that we won’t get to play that last game of spades you kept talking about with me and Leah against you and Tyrone! Nobody could press Deja’s hair out like you!!! I will cherish all of the memories that we had together. I love you Aunt Gloria. Tameka

“ Aunt Gloria....I can't for the life of me understand why you are gone! From childhood I knew you as my strong, tough Aunt Gloria who didn't take nothing off of anybody. A push over you were not! In a lot of ways I generated strength from you. I spent a couple of summers living with you while working as your shampoo girl! You taught me so much! You use to call me your apprentice. I started doing perms and colors and I could wash the heck out of someone's hair! I'll never forget every morning we had to stop at McDonald's and get a big breaftis.....yes that's right i said breaftis! I use to tease my Aunt cause she said breaftis instead of breakfast. I won't get to hear breaftis anymore. It hurts so bad. When I was in junior high school I was quite, shy, a little nerdy and a little boujee. I wore skirts and dresses with dress shoes to school. The girls in my school use to jump girls all the time walking home from school. One day the word got around that they were going to jump me on the way home....I was so scared. I told my Aunt Global cause she had a hood side to her and she said "Oooh hell no they not"....when school was over...I was dreading walking home....I waited as long as I could to leave....I saw a group of people when I was walking out the door and who was it...My Aunt Gloria and some of the ladies from the hair salon!!!!!! They had curling irons, hairbrushes and other things I'm not gonna say! Lol....she was saying "Ain't nobody gonna jump my niece or we gonna whoop somebody's...(you know what)!!!!!! From that day on she told me it's OK to be cute...but you gotta be tough! So hear I am now....pick a fight with me or mine and see if you don't see Aunt Gloria come out of me!!! I loved her so much...she help shaped me and my work ethics. I just wish I actually told her how much I loved her. The tears just won't stop flowing...she was so strong. For the last couple of years she started sending me beautiful text messages everyday. The last message she sent me said "Good Morning, Life is Very Fragile, So Live Life for Every MOMENT and Cherish What you Have" my reply was, "Yes it is, I am praying for all of us!" Why did that have to be the last message Aunt Gloria.....I love you!!!

“ Our hearts are sadden as we celebrate the life of my sister, Gloria and my children aunt. Thank you for keeping my girls hair so stylist as they were growing up and giving me my first perm in my mid 20's. We are thankful for all the times we had here on earth to share with you. We will miss you dearly. Briona & Nuk, may you find comfort in Our Lord & Savior Jesus Christ, remember we are family and here for you. Love, Sherry, William & Family

“ I'll always remember Gloria's smile and infectious laugh. She was the type of cousin everyone should have. She always kept it real with me and I'll miss her truths. She's with our ancestors now and until we meet again at the pearly gates of heaven I'll always honor her memory.

“ Aunt Gloria used to run a Hair Salon and I remember coming back from church one Sunday with my sister Shawna and singing I believe I can fly for the whole shop and that’s my favorite memory with Aunt Gloria.

“ My heart is broken for the loss of my dear friend. GloBro was one of a kind. There is no one like her and she will be sorely missed. May God wrap his loving arms around Briona and Nuk. Y’all continue to make your mom proud and allow her to live on through you! Tyrone I believe Glo is telling me to tell you to wear a belt brotha..I swear she said that just now. I love you man! You know the jokes won’t stop in heaven! God is in control. Trust in him! Amen.

“ To know aunt Gloria was to love her! You wanted to know something and have someone tell it how it was? She was surely the one to go to. Till this day i can not remember her ever saying my name. It was always "hey kiki". My first job came from working with her at 12 in the hair salon as her shampoo girl. I am really going to miss you. Don't worry, I'm going to always make sure the boys are good. We love you, and you will forever be missed..

“ I am thankful for the childhood memories of Gloria picking me up from Clifton Forge VA and taking me to WV with the family. I remember watching my first scary movies while there with y'all and helping to cut all that grass. I am thankful that she extended those invitations to me. I love y'all and am praying for you through this time. I am sorry we were unable to make the service. Please let us know how we can show support virtually or over the phone. Love,
Veronica

*Gloria was one of my closes friend. We did most everything together. We walked in Neighborhood, we talked on the phone for hours and hours, we played cards (three hand bid whist with Tyrone, spades, etc). We enjoyed each other for years. I am going to miss her because she didn't take bullshit from anyone. She spoke her mind and I loved that. May God continue to look over you my FRIEND.
