“ Dear Deborah & Toni and Family,

"You are Our Family and Friends",

We've been friends and family through many of Life's seasons...And with every year we seem to find more reasons to celebrate "YOU",

"GJV" true friendship is seen through the heart, not through the eyes.

"This is my commandment, that you love one another, as I have loved you.

Greater love has no one than to lay down one's life for one's friends"

John 15:12-13.

We will miss you, you will be forever in our hearts.

Love,

The Carter Family

“ Debra,

I am privileged, blessed and so grateful to have known your mom. She was there for me (a stranger) when I was at a very low place in life. There are no words to express the love and caring that she showed me. Gloria was a phenomenal women. God bless you and your family. The work your mother did definitely speaks for itself.

“ My deepest condolences go out to Ms. V's children, grandchildren and other family members and friends. She was a no-nonsense type of woman who was always ready to help whenever possible. Ms. V gave me my first "real job" at the Convention Center and taught me the importance of maintaining a good work ethic and for that, I will always be grateful. Thank you for always being your authentic self, as well as a wonderful bestie to my mom! WE WILL MISS YOU!

“ I offer this prayer for the departed soul of my beauty cousin Gloria:

"O Thou Kind Lord! This dearly cherished maidservant was attracted to Thee, and through reflection and discernment longed to attain Thy presence and enter Thy realms. With tearful eyes she fixed her gaze on the Kingdom of Mysteries. Many a night she spent in deep communion with Thee, and many a day she lived in intimate remembrance of Thee. At every morn she was mindful of Thee, and at every eve she centered her thoughts upon Thee. Like unto a singing nightingale she chanted Thy sacred verses, and like unto a mirror she sought to reflect Thy light.

O Thou Forgiver of sins! Open Thou the way for this awakened soul to enter Thy Kingdom, and enable this bird, trained by Thy hand, to soar in the eternal rose garden. She is afire with longing to draw nigh unto Thee; enable her to attain Thy presence. She is distraught and distressed in separation from Thee; cause her to be admitted into Thy Heavenly Mansion.

O Lord! We are sinners, but Thou art the Forgiver. We are submerged in the ocean of shortcomings, but Thou art the Pardoner, the Kind. Forgive our sins and bless us with Thine abundant grace. Grant us the privilege of beholding Thy Countenance, and give us the chalice of joy and bliss. We are captives of our own transgressions, and Thou art the King of bountiful favors. We are drowned in a sea of iniquities, and Thou art the Lord of infinite mercy. Thou art the Giver, the Glorious, the Eternal, the Bounteous; and Thou art the All-Gracious, the All-Merciful, the Omnipotent, He Who is the Bestower of gifts and the Forgiver of sins. Verily, Thou art He to Whom we turn for the remission of our failings, He Who is the Lord of lords." 'Abdu'l-Bahá

She was truly a path for me on this life's journey. She shared family jewels to help connect and share our heritage and legacy.

“ Dear auntie,

I will miss you . I still remember as a little boy visiting your house and the family bond that I felt.. It made me feel is though I was connected to something much larger than myself. Which in fact was our family

Moreover, you left such an indelible mark on everybody that came in contact with you. Your presence was always felt throughout our whole family. In fact, you were the glue and the hub for us here in the Washington DC area.

I wish I had more time to visit you and fondly revel over our family's history.

Rest in power.

Love you always, your nephew Gabriel.

“ She will forever be my Lil Neighbor. The woman that poured into my adult life that taught me life lessons on how to be a strong black woman, mother, professional and wife. She took me under her wing as her baby daughter and the moments we shared will forever be treasured. Her spirit lives on and I am comforted that she has made a footprint that can never be erased. Debbie, Toni you are my sisters that she gave to me as an adult and I love you girls. You took such great care of your Queen.
