“ Dear Cliff and family,

I wrote out a note to you all earlier, but I'm afraid it may have gotten lost in the ether. So, if this is a repeat, forgive me.

Gloria and I were colleagues and friends. We worked together at the Agency. Gloria was a smart, generous, warm human being. I felt privileged to work beside her. She was an excellent linguist! Toward the end of her career, she learned a language completely outside any language family she had studied before - and mastered it!

Cliff, you and I met at your uncle's funeral. You probably do not remember, but we did. I mention it only to give you a sense of my continuing contact with your mother. I am so happy she was able to be close to you the last few years of her life. Of course, you were the apple of her eye!

So, if there is a charity to which I can make a contribution, I would be happy to do so. But unless there is a Johnny Mathis charity available, I don't know where to send my contribution. I would be most appreciative if you would let me know.

Thanks, and please accept my sincere condolences.
