We are so very sorry to hear of Sister Lorraine's transition to meet the Lord. She always had a smile on her face and her bubbly personality was contagious. The Handy family is praying and believing God for your peace at this special time. Blessings now and always!

“ My heart hurt when I heard of the passing of Sis Lorraine. She had a love for the Lord that was contagious. She respected and honored me as her pator And she made me laugh all the time. Her children were her joy and loved her beyond measure. Condolences to the family and love oneswe will miss her dearly.....until we meet again, Lorraine.
