*“ I met Whitt (few people called him Harold) back in 1966 when I was with the Police Boys Club No.2 Drum Corps. In my opinion Whitt was the best snare drummer in DC. His friend Harold Frazier also known as Googi did a drum duet with Whitt at the Eastern High School Spring Serenade in 1965 and they were fantastic. Whitt and Googi will be missed.

“ To the Whitt family. The VIP Group will miss our brother. Harold was a member from the very development with a purpose of collecting DC drum corps history and make it viewable for all. Rest In Peace you will always be with us.

“ My “Boss” as I affectionately called Harold was one of the most caring boss I have ever had. I started working for Harold in 1996 until 2002, as his Office Assistant. Those were the best days anyone could have shared with their boss, because he made work a lot of fun in stead of a lot of work. One of my most fondest moments was when I duplicated a form that he needed and he was so impressed because he couldn’t tell the difference from the original. Rest in peace my “Boss” and my friend , Gloria Taylor.
